Session III

[Group Training]

Training of APEC Guidebook on SME Digital Resilience Learning by doing.

The training workshop is designed to first raise the awareness of cyber security and digital resilience. This group training will be implemented with interactive activities where participants work on digital resilience within a realistic simulated environment. There are two activities to be implemented within this group training: (1) a realistic scenario training and self-assessment; (2) QA racing game. Participants will learn cyber security fundamentals through their participation in these two activities.

Our lead instructor will give instructions during these games by utilizing “APEC Guidebook on SME Digital Resilience” with the hope to make your company survive and thrive in the digital economy!
